SUPPORT PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

Between

AlHuda Centre of Islamic Banking and Economics (AlHuda CIBE – UAE)
("Organizer")

And

[ISFOA]
("Support Partner")

1. Purpose of the Agreement

This Support Partnership Agreement ("Agreement") outlines the terms and conditions governing the collaboration between AlHuda Centre of Islamic Banking and Economics (AlHuda CIBE - UAE) and ISFOA as an Official Support Partner for the 2nd London Forum on Islamic Banking and Finance, scheduled to be held on 22 August 2026 in London, United Kingdom.

The purpose of this partnership is to jointly promote the forum, enhance industry engagement, and encourage participation from financial institutions, regulators, policymakers, development organizations, academia, investors, and other stakeholders in the Islamic banking and finance industry.

2. About the Organizer

AlHuda Centre of Islamic Banking and Economics (AlHuda CIBE - UAE) has been serving the global Islamic finance industry since 2005, providing advisory, consultancy, research, education, capacity building, and Shariah advisory services across more than 105 countries.

The 2nd London Forum on Islamic Banking and Finance will bring together regulators, central banks, financial institutions, Shariah scholars, policymakers, investors, development organizations, and industry experts to discuss emerging trends, opportunities, innovations, and sustainable solutions shaping the future of Islamic finance. 3. Support Partner Responsibilities

The Support Partner agrees to:

- Promote the event through its official communication channels, including its website, newsletters, social media platforms, and email communications.
- Share the event invitation and registration information with its members, clients, stakeholders, and professional network.
- Encourage participation from relevant institutions, professionals, and industry stakeholders within its network.
- Support awareness-building initiatives by reposting and amplifying official event announcements, promotional campaigns, and updates.
- Facilitate introductions, where appropriate, to potential participants, speakers, sponsors, media partners, strategic partners, and other relevant stakeholders.

Additional Clause to Section 3 – Support Partner Responsibilities

The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement is being executed during ISFOA's summer recess. Consequently, due to the temporary unavailability of its technical staff and collaborators responsible for communication activities, the Support Partner will provide only limited promotional support for the event through one online publication affiliated with ISFOA and through ISFOA's official social media channels.

It is expressly understood that, for this edition of the event, ISFOA shall have no further promotional, organizational, or operational obligations beyond those specifically set out in this clause.

4. Support Partner Benefits

In recognition of its support, the Support Partner will receive:

- Official recognition as a Support Partner of the 2nd London Forum on Islamic Banking and Finance.
- Display of the organization's logo on official event marketing and promotional materials.
- One (1) complimentary delegate pass for the event.
- A 25% discount on registration fees for participants from the Support Partner's member network.
- Brand visibility through event promotions, the official event website, press releases, and digital marketing activities.
- Opportunity to contribute industry insights and expertise through speaker participation, subject to the Organizer's program requirements and approval.
- Networking opportunities with regulators, central banks, financial institutions, development organizations, investors, and international industry leaders.
- Recognition during the event's inauguration and in the post-event report.

5. General Terms

- This partnership is based on mutual cooperation and does not create any financial obligation between the parties unless agreed separately in writing.
- Both parties agree to use each other's name and logo solely for promotional purposes related to this event, subject to prior approval and applicable brand guidelines.
- Neither party shall make any public statement on behalf of the other without prior written consent.
- Each party shall maintain the confidentiality of any non-public information exchanged during the course of this partnership.
- Any amendments to this Agreement shall be made in writing and mutually agreed upon by both parties.
- Either party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice if circumstances prevent continued participation. Any promotional materials already published prior to termination may remain in circulation where practical.

6. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the applicable laws mutually agreed upon by both parties.

7. Acceptance

By signing below, both parties acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms and conditions of this Support Partnership Agreement.
